3

How you can participate

1. Discuss opportunity with your supervisors and work together to respond to new up coming calls.
2. Find out from your supervisors/department how you can be part of an ongoing project.
3. Participate in guest lectures and online courses on special topics on innovation, entrepreneurship and Intellectual Property Management.

Conclusion

The RSIF Research Grants (W1) and Innovation Grants (W2) are integral parts of strengthening innovation ecosystems at host universities. They complement the RSIF PhD scholarships, and countries can learn from this model to improve their own national research and innovation grant making mechanisms following international best practices.
